Trinity Directory Structure Diagram

Existing Structure:

      Organized by park unit, permissions are inherited from park unit or higher directory levels. Permissions cannot be assigned to subfolders within a park unit that are different from the park unit.

Proposed Structure:

      Organized by ownership. Permissions can be assigned to the ownership folder and propagated to the subfolders. This would facilitate programmatic-level data stewardship.